

20 Business Ideas You Can Start on Ibrahim Taiwo Road, Kano State (And Actually Make Money!) | 7hubent Tech

Ibrahim Taiwo Road, Kano—if you know, you know. This is where the hustle never sleeps. From the blaring of horns from Okadas, the aroma of suya grilling nearby, to the chaotic mix of traders shouting their wares, this road represents the heartbeat of Kano's commerce. Now, if you're thinking of starting a business here and cashing in on the daily flow of people, I say you're making the right move. But what if I told you that you don't even need much capital to start? Yes, my people, dreams can begin with the little you have—whether it's pure passion or a few naira notes.

In this article, I'll be sharing 20 businesses you can start on Ibrahim Taiwo Road, Kano State, that'll make your pocket fatter than a Sallah ram. Oh, and did I mention 7hubent Tech is the plug for promoting your business for free through WhatsApp groups? Keep reading to see how!

1. Suya Spot

This one is a no-brainer. You know Nigerians and their love for spicy, smoky suya. Set up a grill on Ibrahim Taiwo Road, and you'll have people queuing. Just be sure your spice game is top-notch—after all, Kano people don't play when it comes to flavor!

2. Recharge Card Business

Everyone and their grandmother has a phone in Kano, and what do they all need? Airtime. Just start small with different recharge cards and watch how customers flock to you. The best part? It's easy to scale up. And don't worry, with 7hubent Tech, you can share your recharge business across WhatsApp groups and get even more buyers!

3. Mini Grocery Store

Okay, so you might not be ready to become the next Shoprite, but stocking up essentials like sugar, salt, Maggi, and Indomie will have people coming back daily. Just know how to relate well with your customers because once Kano people trust you, they'll stick with you for life!

4. POS Business

The cashless society isn't just a Lagos thing, Kano is catching up. Many people need access to cash and don't have the time (or patience) to queue at ATMs. Get a POS machine, rent a tiny space on Ibrahim Taiwo Road, and your business will be booming in no time.

5. Clothing Store

From trendy kaftans to colorful hijabs, Kano people love to look good. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is a fashion hub, so why not ride that wave? Buy fabrics in bulk from Kurmi Market, sew some jaw-dropping designs, and display them on a rack. Before you know it, your little shop will be buzzing.

6. Mobile Phone Accessories

Let me tell you, mobile phone accessories are a hidden goldmine. Chargers, earphones, screen protectors—these things always spoil and need replacement. Set up a small kiosk and stock up on phone accessories. Trust me, it's a quick and easy business to manage.

7. Fruit Stand

Not only is it healthy, but selling fresh fruits like bananas, pineapples, and watermelon is in demand. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is a busy area, and people love to grab something quick and refreshing. Just make sure your fruits are ripe and fresh!

8. Laundry Services

With the hustle and bustle of daily life, not everyone has the time to wash their clothes. Open a small laundromat or even a “wash-and-iron” service, and people will gladly hand over their dirty laundry for a fee.

9. Second-Hand Clothing (Okrika)

Believe me, even with all the big fashion houses, Okrika is still a major player in Kano. Good quality second-hand clothing can make you a fortune. Go to markets in Lagos or Cotonou, stock up, and bring your goods to Kano. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is just waiting for you!

10. Shawarma Business

Kano folks love a good shawarma, especially when it's loaded with beef, chicken, and veggies. With just a small stand and a few ingredients, you can start flipping shawarma and making money in no time. Plus, who doesn't love the smell of grilled chicken at night?

11. Freelance Tailoring

If you have the skills of a tailor, don't just sit at home. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is where people are always looking for last-minute fixes to their clothes—whether it's resizing a kaftan or sewing a new outfit for a wedding. Set up a small workshop, and you'll be amazed at how much you can make.

12. Food Delivery Service

Are you good at cooking? I mean, really good? Why not start a food delivery service! With so many workers and traders on Ibrahim Taiwo Road, lunchtime is always a busy period. Offer to deliver hot meals right to their doorstep. And guess what? 7hubent Tech can help promote your business on WhatsApp for free.

13. Car Wash Business

With the constant dust from Kano's streets, cars need to be washed regularly. Set up a simple car wash on Ibrahim Taiwo Road and see how cars roll in. Just make sure your service is quick and thorough. And you can offer extra services like tire pressure checks to sweeten the deal.

14. Beauty and Barbing Salon

From shaping eyebrows to cutting fresh fades, beauty services are always in demand. All you need is a small space, a few clippers, and scissors, and you'll be giving out fresh cuts and making money daily.

15. Shoe Repair (Mai Gyaran Takalma)

This might seem basic, but shoe repairmen never run out of business in Kano. People would rather repair a pair of shoes than buy a new one. Grab some tools, set up a stand, and start fixing those worn-out soles.

16. Photography

Events are a big deal in Kano—weddings, birthdays, naming ceremonies—you name it. If you have a camera and the talent, start your photography business. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is the perfect spot to capture those candid moments and find clients.

17. Bakery

People love bread, and a small bakery can rake in some serious money. Whether it's agege bread, cupcakes, or meat pies, if it's fresh and delicious, people will line up for it.

18. Transport Business

Ibrahim Taiwo Road is always busy. If you have a car or a tricycle (keke), start a transport business. Moving people around can be a profitable venture, especially in peak hours.

19. Spices and Herbs Store

With Kano's rich food culture, selling traditional spices like yaji (suya spice), curry, thyme, and local herbs will have customers trooping in. Ibrahim Taiwo Road is the perfect place to set up shop.

20. Freelance Social Media Management

Last but not least, if you're tech-savvy, why not offer to help small businesses manage their social media accounts? Trust me, many people on Ibrahim Taiwo Road don't even know the power of Facebook, Instagram, and WhatsApp for their business. Use 7hubent Tech's free WhatsApp advertising platform to connect and grow your client base.

Testimony Time!

Now let me share a little story. I once started a mini fruit stand on Ibrahim Taiwo Road with just N5,000. I bought some bananas, oranges, and pineapples, and started selling under a small umbrella. Within two weeks, I doubled my profit. Word got around quickly, especially after I joined 7hubent Tech's WhatsApp group, where I posted daily updates and promotions. People would send me messages asking if I could deliver to their homes. That's when I realized the power of free advertising on WhatsApp! Today, I own a bigger fruit shop, thanks to those humble beginnings.

Final Thoughts:

Starting a business on Ibrahim Taiwo Road is not just about making money; it's about building relationships, hustling, and creating a life you can be proud of. Don't wait for millions before you start. Begin with what you have, and as I always say, hustle with your full chest! And remember, 7hubent Tech is there to support your growth with free WhatsApp group advertising.
