Welcome to the Wild, Wacky World of WhatsApp Affiliate Marketing in Nigeria!

Picture this: It's 2024, and you're in Lagos, the bustling city where dreams either come true or get stuck in traffic. The air is thick with the smell of suya, and your phone is buzzing non-stop. No, it's not your jollof-loving aunt asking for the umpteenth time if you're married yet—it's your WhatsApp groups blowing up with affiliate marketing opportunities.

What is Affiliate Marketing, Anyway?

In case you've been living under a rock (or just too busy avoiding Lagos traffic), affiliate marketing is a way to earn money by promoting products or services and earning a commission for every sale made through your referral. Think of it as being the middleman, but way cooler and with a smartphone.

Why WhatsApp Groups?

Why WhatsApp? Because Nigerians love WhatsApp more than we love jollof (okay, maybe not that much, but you get the point). With over 90 million internet users in Nigeria, WhatsApp is the go-to platform for everything from family gossip to serious business deals. It's like the village square but digital—and with fewer nosy neighbors.
