How I Made My First ₦50,000 from WhatsApp TV (And How You Can Too)

I remember when I first started out with WhatsApp TV. It was during the lockdown, and like most of you, I was broke — like, I can't even lie, I was eating garri three times a day. One day, I stumbled on a post talking about how some people were earning money just from WhatsApp TV. At first, I laughed it off. I mean, WhatsApp that we use to gossip with friends? Make money?

But hunger can humble you, abi? So, I gave it a shot. I started small. I added friends, joined WhatsApp groups, and shared funny memes and news updates. Slowly, my audience grew. The real game changer was when I partnered with 7hubent Tech, a free advertising platform that lets people advertise their businesses on my WhatsApp TV. I simply directed people to my WhatsApp status through 7hubent, and boom — my follower count skyrocketed!

Before I knew it, businesses started contacting me to promote their products. They were willing to pay good money just for me to feature them on my status. In a month, I made my first ₦50,000. Let me tell you, when you touch that kind of money from doing something as simple as updating your WhatsApp status, you won't ever look back.

So, How Exactly Do You Make Money from WhatsApp TV?

1. Build an Audience: First, you need an audience. The larger your WhatsApp contacts, the more valuable your WhatsApp TV becomes. Grow your contacts list by joining relevant groups or using platforms like 7hubent Tech, where people are already looking to advertise.

2. Advertise for Others: Once you've built a decent following, businesses will want to tap into that. With WhatsApp TV, you can charge for advertising services. It's like renting out your status — and believe me, people are willing to pay to be seen.

3. Content Creation: Don't just post anything. You need to keep people engaged. Think of your WhatsApp TV like a mini-blog. Post things that are funny, relatable, or trending in Nigeria. When your content gets attention, more advertisers will come knocking.

4. Affiliate Marketing: Use your WhatsApp TV to promote products from affiliate programs. For every sale someone makes through your status, you get a cut. Easy money!
